RE: Treaty #8 Benefits Trust Scholarship and Grant Application Forms

The Treaty #8 Benefits Trust is excited to announce another Scholarship and Grant Program for eligible students from the Fond du Lac First Nation. The Scholarship Program will be available on a merit basis to on and off reserve students who have maintained a high academic standing as full-time students at designated Canadian or American Universities. The Grant Program will be available on a lottery basis to on and off reserve students who are registered as students at an accredited Canadian College, Institute of Technology or Trade School.

A $2,500 Treaty #8 Benefits Trust Scholarship will be awarded by merit to 16 full time university students (8 On Reserve & 8 Off Reserve) of high academic standing, early in January 2024. The basic criteria for eligibility are:

- 1) Must be a registered member of the Fond du Lac First Nation
- 2) Must be in at least the second year of full-time studies at a designated Canadian or American University

Additional minimum Scholarship requirements (see (?)) are disclosed in detail in the online application form (link below):
